There's no place like this There's no place like this There's nowhere I would rather be

You best wishes and postcard kisses My heart is warmed, my body calmed

I want it more than you I'm insatiable, I'm to much too I want it more than you Baby I do

There are no chains like these There are no chains like these Stainless care, the comfort's here

No touch so painless No eyes so aimless Beyond repair, the damage in there

I want it more than you I'm insatiable, I'm to much too I want it more than you Baby I do

I want it more than you I'm insatiable, I'm to much too I want it more than you Baby I do
