I see you there, head bowed down fighting back the tears
Broken-hearted, tired and worn from hiding all these years.
For so long, you've been running desperate to outdistance the pain.
Far too long, you've been trying to silence the guilt, but in vain.

Lift your head. Look at me. Wouldn't you like to be set
free?
Lift your head. Look at me. Isn't it time to be set free?

He sees you there, heart weighed down, shackled by the shame
Bruised and bleeding, spirit raw from dragging all these chains.
Long sleeve smiles, veil the scars - too many stones within reach.
Quick fix vials, appease the dark, leave you longing for mercy's release.

Lift your head. Look at me. Wouldn't you like to be set
free?
Lift your head. Look at me. Isn't it time to be set free?
Lift your head. Look at me. Wouldn't you like to be set
free?
Lift your head. Look at me. Isn't it time to be set free?

Lay it down. Come lay it down. Leave it all here at His feet.
Lay it down. Come lay it down. Where Grace and Mercy meet.
Where Grace and Mercy meet.

Lift your head. Lift your voice. Sing: "Jesus set me
free!"
Lift your head. Lift your voice. Sing: "Jesus set me
free!"
Lift your head. Lift your voice. Sing: "Jesus set me
free!"

Lift your head. Lift your voice. Sing: "Jesus set me free!"

Jesus set me free. Jesus set me free!

Jesus set me free. Jesus set me free!

Jesus set me free. Jesus set me free!

Jesus set me free! Jesus set me free!

Lift your head. Lift your voice. Sing: "I have been redeemed!"

Lift your head. Lift your voice. Sing: "I have been redeemed!"

Lift your head. Lift your voice. Sing: "I have been redeemed!"

Lift your head. Lift your voice. Sing: "I have been redeemed!"
