Deep as you go I'll follow, deep as the water goes

All the world is hollow and dry, but you and I go down, you and I go

down

Far as you want to take me, far as your eyes can see

Leave the world alone in the sky, you and I go free, you and I are free

Don't save me, don't lose me, don't wake me now

You let me, you release me, let me drown, take me
down

Promise to take me with you, promise to let me go

All the world is waiting to see as you and I go down

You and I are free

Don't save me, don't lose me, don't wake me now

down

I want to be completed, I want to disappear, I want to be uncovered

Take me down, take me down, let me drown

Somehow I need to love you more than I need to breathe

I can feel you leaving the ground

I will follow down, you and I will drown

Don't save me, don't lose me, don't wake me now

down
