This is the summer, the summer of despair
I don't know where I'm going, but it feels like nowhere
I'm working all day just to pay my way
In a world that won't accept me for who I am
And so I'll play like seasons mean something to me
When nothing ever changes once you are older than 16
The sun, the beach, all miles away
Not that it matters since you'll have to work everyday anyway

CHORUS:

What ever happened to the warm summer days
Waking up carefree with naught to do but play
No alarm clock, too much PB and J
Then again, no money, and vacation's on the way

So now I'll deal with it that's what I'm forced to do
My daily life lacks entertainment value
If this is the real life that's been prepared for me
Then I would rather go back to my room and watch some more T.V.

Time to conform 'cause that's all that's left to do
I'll work washing cars or maybe even in fast food
Ridiculous hours with ridiculous pay
But at least I've left my parents with nothing to say ay ay

What ever happened to those warm summer days
Waking up so carefree, with naught to do but play

DROP IT!!!
