Two police officers killed today, in the independence
minor republic of Croatia. Clinches between Serbs and Kroats are continuing, despite the cease-fire ordered by Jugoslavian
leaders las . But the two sides did exchange twenty prisoners today, that's the second trade in two days.

Come, go, step inside, bring me news from the dying
world.
You thinkers and killers, you're spreading your decease among us.
Wants back, color rack, all you see is the TV set,
while people around you are dying like flies.

Non-Stop Violence. They beat us, cascades of non-believers dying in the sand.
Feeding us with violence, we face of all of them.
Believe me and catch me if you can.

Believe me and catch me if you can.
Come, go, step inside, bring me news from the dying
world.
You thinkers and killers, you're speading your decease
among us.
Wild noice, injuring your ears with money talks,
what you need is silence and a positive life.

Non-Stop Violence

So I took shelter in tomorrow
Tomorrow will bring a brand new day
Think I'll make it right tomorrow,
think I need more sleep today.
Lets make peace again tomorrow,
I need a will to stay away.
I guess I'll always hate tomorrow
until it's far away, away.
