Oh I wish that all my wishin stop and that the wishin would just come true Cause when I finally find my mind deep inside
I know its right
Tell me does it feel the same way for you Cause It drives me insane tryin to care about what other people are thinking tryin to please everyone but me
I can take much more

Starr/Chorous:

It isnt easy
to sit back, watch from the sidelines
It isnt easy
to hide all my feelings inside Wonderin if I've done the right thing Or wrecked up my life

It isnt easy to be me

Sometimes

Britney:

Tell me how you know, when you think you know

That you've reached the point
Your finally trying to hard It's that point when you're gonna sacrifice who you really are and you get lost, caught up and talk

Langston:

Why do I feel it's always me
the ones who's different why am I outside of the tracks there's got to be more

All/Chorus

All:

So I'll run fast turn left then I'll run some more I've got to save
my heart
from its hurt before and I won't stop till I am sure

That that you be hurting
I'm not of your age
no possibility that you'll be hurting me
No more

Britney:

It isn't easy to smile
when I'm just feelin' down

Langston:

Or to say what feel
around everyone else

Starr:

Wanna throw out the rules
but I still compromise
It isn't easy to be sometimes Oh how I wish that all my wishin' would STOP!
