They are cutting all the trees, city's poisoned by cars, where can our children play? they took their playground away

They're claiming our streets now, they're buying our walls, so where we gonna meet now they sold the city out!

It's time to take a stand, here's a list, a list with our demands, reclaim the power now, reclaim the streets, we don't wanna be branded when we rock the city beat,
so we got to take a stand, take a stand!

Got to ignore the lies, hey we won't let the planet die, gotta try to feel alive, let's start a peaceful fight!

This ain't no riot but a rave, you see we all deserve some fun, but where we gonna party, now our public space is gone?

It's time to take a stand, here's a list, a list with our
demands, reclaim the power now, reclaim the streets,
we don't wanna be branded when we rock the city beat,
so we got to take a stand, take a stand!

Hey they appear so great, that's why we are on our knees, gotta get back on our feet again, because there is to much at stake!

They'll try to kick us out now, demolished all our parents' dreams, but they won't get away with it, so we all gotta rise up!

It's time to take a stand, here's a list, a list with our
demands, reclaim the power now, reclaim the streets,
we don't wanna be branded when we rock the city beat,
so we got to take a stand, take a stand!

demands, reclaim the power now, reclaim the streets,
we don't wanna be branded when we rock the city beat,
so we got to take a stand, take a stand!
