i suppose you have some gamesâ€¦i'd love to play with you

if you thought that i was leaving here can i find a way inside try to call it just an absence of faith
but i feel justified you can't stand through this there's nothing left in my heart but for now just too long there's no end in sight wot am i for
to be hurt more
i just don't like you in yourself i cant like u
want to burn u i wish u were dead

cos if its hard you want out its no fun
behind your smile forget that i was left with everything

never the same to me (x3)

never the same
its never the same

once you played up to the end stop the noise get nowhere with your current state of mind i even wonder why you're here please stay at home killing my laughter hurting my insides you are played wot am i here for

i cant like you want to burn you

i wish you were dead

could i find a way inside
if its hard you want out its no fun

(its how i feel yeah its how i'm made yeah
