Verse A:

I guess I could use a little inspiration
To keep me from struggling all night long
I guess I could go deeper in a conversation
All night long
I guess I could choke
Trying to explain to you the reason
For crying in the dark
I guess I could laugh, laugh in your face
When you fake trying to figure me out

Chorus A:

Touch me, hold me, pat me, see me
My presence is next to you
Would you sink in me
Leave me for another
It's ok I'm a survivor
I've grown out of this before

Verse B:

I believe things will get better
It just takes a little time of getting used to Feels like someone
Presses on a fader button
I'm trying to scream but my voice never comes out

Chorus B:

Wanna fly away and run away
And turn around and see you there
That's why I have this look of anticipation
Wanna take a bus or take a train
And wave bye bye
To the past that never ends
Never ends

C Part:

Something in the way that I'm begging for attention
It's tragic, it's comic
Something in the way that no one hears me out
It's ironic, ironic, ironic
Ironic, ironic, ironic

Chorus C:

Touch me, hold me, pat me, see me
My presence is next to you
Would you sink in me
Leave me for another
It's ok I'm a survivor
I've grown out of this before
Wanna run away and fly away
And turn around and see you there
That's why I have this look of anticipation
Wanna take a bus or take a train
And leave behind
The past that never ends
Wanna scream and shout and break your heart
Commit the crime and do the time
Wanna free my mind and seize to hide -acap
