It's been a long time coming and we stop singing We Shall Overcome and negro spirituals, we are no longer humming Just what are we becoming?
It pulls a piece of life up out of me that for little or nothing you willin to battle me and actually it's not an act We unruly, shootin up schools, doin the fool, we got a knack
I been carryin guns since I was knee high Till it all stopped, I stoped and now I'm watchin all my dogs die
This is the beginning of armageddon We get high regardless, we Godless so how high are we gettin?
And we stay iced out in this land we on See errantly on you, losin your arm over the diamond Try em on, here go my shoes Now check the ways of racism and be the first one singin the blues Gods children are on every land we rhyme on We share the same sky and gotta die, that's just what we got in common. Come on

We livin up under the rain... can't stop it from fallin
down
We livin up another storm... can't stop it from movin...
hey
We livin up under the rain... can't stop it from fallin
down
We livin up another storm... can't stop it from movin...

They say you can not judge a book by it's cover but it seems somehow we be judgin one another because of cover Thinkin about the prejudice that plagues the human race
Even in God's grace, the people ain't safe with all this hatin that we face, now check it They say that Martin Luther King, he had a dream But a dream is all it was because a race still comes between us

We never did learn, watchin the crosses burn
In his grave he would toss and turn How many times can he return? Now we must..
Learn to stick together and whether the stormy weather
We can never survive unless we can coexist together
A nation that is united, but all of its people divided No more, we can not hide it, politically tryin to justify it

We livin up under the rain... can't stop it from fallin
down
We livin up another storm... can't stop it from movin...
hey
We livin up under the rain... can't stop it from fallin
down
We livin up another storm... can't stop it from movin...
hey
We livin up under the rain... can't stop it from fallin
down
We livin up another storm... can't stop it from movin...
hey
We livin up under the rain... can't stop it from fallin
down
We livin up another storm... can't stop it from movin...
hey
