I try to shake you of my mind
But you're too stubborn to leave
I try to put it all behind
But it just gives me grief

I've got butterflies stuck in my stomach
I chase them off but they attack
I've got some sanity left but it leaves me
Because you keep coming back
And you're a heartbreaker, heartbreaker, heartbreaker
And you making me want you
A heartbreaker, heartbreaker, heartbreaker
And you making me want you

I try to run but I can't hide
Your face is carved inside
And all the places where you are
Are places where I've cried

I've got butterflies stuck in my stomach
I chase them off but they attack
I've got some sanity left but it leaves me
Because you keep coming back
And you're a heartbreaker, heartbreaker, heartbreaker
And you making me want you
A heartbreaker, heartbreaker, heartbreaker
And you making me want you

You making me want you

Get away from me now
Take your sweet face back

Get away from me now
Take your sweet face back

I've got butterflies stuck in my stomach
I chase them off but they attack
I've got some sanity left but it leaves me
Because you keep coming back
And you're a heartbreaker, heartbreaker, heartbreaker

And you making me want you
A heartbreaker, heartbreaker, heartbreaker
And you making me want you

A heartbreaker, heartbreaker, heartbreaker
And you making me want you

You making me miss you

You making me love you
