I try to remember a kiss
And I only get sorrow
And yesterday's faded away
Now there's only tomorrow
And everything passes and changes
And comes to an end I know
But nothing is written but old news
Again and again
I know that it's true
There's too many tears
But angels don't cry
Now I see a face in your eyes
But you don't remember my name
We're always a step out of time
Now ain't that a shame
And you've been alone for too long
And nobody cries
If you want to see all of my tears
Take a look in your eyes
I know that it's true
Believe it or not

But angels don't cry
I know that it's true
There's too many tears
But angels don't cry
I could walk away
Or I could walk on by
Or make it all come true
Or say it's all a lie
There's no more tears
When you're out of time
And I might fade away tonight
If you close your eyes
I know that it's true
Believe it or not
But angels don't cry
I know that it's true
There's too many tears
But angels don't cry
I could walk away
I could walk on by
Or make it all come true
Or say it's all a lie
