Speak, talk to me

Show what I am

And cannot be

Talk, entertain me

Why the want for

All that I can't touch

And all that I can't see?

Why the want for

All that I can't speak?

And what is mine?

And all I see, speak to me

And what is yours?

Entertain me

Sing, read to me

Sell what I am

Sell what I feel

Sleep, walk to me

Why the want for

All that I can't touch

And all that I can't see?

Why the need for

All that I can't speak?
And what is mine?
And all I see, talk to me
And what is yours?
Entertain me
And what is mine?
And what I see, speak to me
And what is you?
Entertain me, entertain me
Speak, entertain me
Talk to me, don't talk to me
Spell, pay for me
Spell, spell lie for me
Spell, spell want for me
Sing, read to me
Walkie talk and tambourine
Stop, here it comes again
Stop, stop, here it comes again
Weather [Incomprehensible] taste like winter
All my own [Incomprehensible]
[Incomprehensible]
