"Get A Room"

Visit "Get A Room" on MotoLyrics.com

Don't want order, it won't come

There's no why that it goes on

I was tied and I'm undone

I've got all that you don't want

You want order I want more

You want it all and all of it's yours

You want shelter, I get a room

I get a room

My confusion leaves me cold

I've got nothing here to hold

All that's gold will never shine

It was nothing, never mind

I want time, I want it now

My confusion's getting me down

You want shelter, I get a room

I get a room

What of yours is there to keep?

To be there when you sleep

I'm not here to tie your feet

Hold a hand upon your sleeve

Here's a nail to hang the wall

It pays to lose it all
A note to hide behind the door
I get a room
Where you sleep, I laid awake
I saw every time you fake
I held on the hand that takes
And you hate it when I break
You want order, I want more
You want it all and all of it's yours
You want shelter, I get a room
I get a room
I get a room
