Hello to you, hello to me
I've somewhere else to be
Excuses, I get all the time
Your answers, I don't see
Today is easy, isn't it so?
I sit and watch the radio
There's nothing coming on at all
Hello to you, hello to me
Ah, yeah, I really care
I'll see you all around sometime
I hope that I'm not there
Today's news is yesterday's news
You don't remember, you forget
That's the way the stories all go
Hello to you, hello to me
And yes, I really care
I'll see you all around sometime
If I ever go back there
Goodbye to you, goodbye again
I've got to get this train
It's nine o' clock already

And I'm twenty minutes late
Goodbye to you, goodbye again
Problems don't exist
I'll see you at the station
You'll be standing in the rain
Today is easy, isn't it so?
The man says, "Stop"
The clock says, "Now"
It's exit time for me
Goodnight to you, goodnight again
I've somewhere else to be
I'll see you all around sometime
I hope you don't miss me
Goodbye to you, goodbye to you
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye, goodbye, goodbye to you
Goodbye
