Yeah, we're in on the act

And love's in the back

With all of your roses and you

Yeah, you, you, you, a high heeled girl

And we talk just like jazz

Like a song from the edge

And we move like a piece of the Times

For you, you, you, a high heeled girl

The party goes on till it's late

And there's nobody home

And I look in your face

And I see that I'm here all alone

And it's only a game

And it's only a game

And it's only a game

And it's only a part of the act and love's in the back

And every thing's fun, fun, fun

We're so loose for you, won't you stay?

They're just winding me up to take me away

With a face full of plans

And a dangerous game

We're a two minute hit for a day
For you, you, you, a high heeled girl
With your rings and your drums
And a day at a time
And a foot on the floor of your love
It's you, you, you, a high heeled girl
And the party goes on till it's late
And there's nobody home
And I look in your face
And I see that I'm here all alone
And it's only a game
And it's only a game
And it's only a game
And it's only a part of the act and love's in the back
And every thing's fun, fun, fun
We're so loose for you, won't you stay?
They're just winding me up to take me away
And it's only a game
And it's only a game
And it's only a game
