"Guilty By Association"

you've been sanctified and I've been tried guilty by association you've been canonized and I've been fried guilty by association
all the little loonies with a salient obsession come out from the boonies with their sharpies and their guns loaded with questions

association
you've been terrorized
