Bit by bit I'm falling under your spell
Your smile's all I need to see to know we'll, Leave this endless darkness, saying, "Come along with me!"
Hold my hand...

Back when you first came into my life,
I recalled a place that I knew as a child; a special place that I held close to my heart Won't you lead me in a dance down this winding road, Where the light and shadow entwine to take hold of the thoughts of the one left far behind?
Know that sometimes, I want to turn around and see the things that I've passed on the journey
But know with love on my side, with courage and pride, I'll fight; I will carry on

Bit by bit. I'm falling under your charm You'll keep me and all the world far from harm Bring hope to everyone; take in your hands eternity
Even when it seems that I don't need you, Just know that I am in love; can't wait to Leave this endless darkness. wont you come along with me? hold my hand
