You
My love
You were in my dream tonight
And there, everything was just so right
The beauty of it all
Was all because of you
This moment stopped in time
Was too good to be true

And I could hear the breezes blow
You smiled by the light
Of the candles burning low
Two stars we called our own
Enthralled the evening sky
As if to tell the rest they were shining
Just for you and I

Oh Heather...
You took me far away tonight
The summer's loneliness driven far from sight
We didn't have to speak
No words could quite compare
But as I touched your hand
You suddenly weren't there

Then the pillow felt the tears
The weeks we've been apart
Could outlast a thousand years
And though my dream's now out of sight
I'll pray that as my eyes close tight
That you'll fill my dreams again tonight
Tonight..
