Tell me to compromise
And force my face to fit
Listen to the ones
Who only write about it

You make me feel like a caged animal
When I want to get away
You fuck me over when I fight for a future
Won't forget about yesterday

Back in the cage

I know you can't define
The indefinable
Stand still and I'll be
Commercially viable

You make me feel like a caged animal
When I want to get away
You fuck me over when I fight for a future
Won't forget about yesterday
I have to work so hard for survival
To keep my integrity
You make me part of another revival
No way forward, no sincerity

Cut- cut- cut me down
To the size I should be
While you live in the past
