[Lyrics: Morgan Thorn, Geoff Thorpe]

Freakshow circus, hit parade, nightmares walking
The kids on the Haight, they're begging for change
Without even talking... Not me!
Gonna live my life on 10
Gonna go where no one's been
Take my friends with me
I'm gonna burn this temple down
Gonna dig and break new ground
That's what I believe...
Cranked out carnies flip the switch
On your little darlings
They're trapped on this ride, melting inside
But nobody's crying... Not me!
Gonna live my life on 10
Gonna go where no one's been
Take my friends with me
I'm gonna burn this temple down
Gonna dig and break new ground
I won't be deceived...
Life...
Simple and cruel, scholars and fools, you and me
Trust...
It comes and it goes, nobody knows, and nobody cares
So blame it on me, this hypocrisy of humanity
Sadistic Symphony...
Gonna live my life on 10
Gonna go where no one's been
Take my friends with me
I'm gonna burn this temple down
Gonna dig and break new ground
I've got to believe...
Life...
Simple and cruel, scholars and fools, you and me
Trust...
It comes and it goes, nobody knows, and nobody cares
So blame it on me, this hypocrisy of humanity
Sadistic Symphony...
