(Lyrics: M. McGee, G.Thorpe // Music: G.Thorpe, M.Mcgee)

Seven years are gone behind me

(Seven years are gone)

A flash before my eyes

(Before my eyes)

The truth revealed is everlasting

(The truth revealed is ever here)

And so are you and I

(So are) you and I

Listening to the wind, Feel the beat of your heart

Hear a voice within, it's singing, Ahh, Ahh...

Passion love and fear, and the will to survive

It's all that brings you here

And keeps you soul alive

Dreamin' of a new horizon,

(Dreamin' on and on)

Movin' with the tide

(Got to keep on movin')

There before you lie the answers

(Answers to the questions)

To the questions in your mind

Race across the land, with your fist in the air

Hearing the voice again, it's screamin' - Ahh, Ahh...

What you believe is real, Oh like you flesh and blood

In time you start to feel, just like you knew you would

Through it all you will find, unity and peace of mind

Now's the time, the time is now

Life is short, so live it well

Through it all you give and take, never give yourself away

Keep the faith and don't let go - don't let go

Listening to the wind, feel the beat of your heart

Hear the voice again, it's screaming - Ahh, Ahh...

Passion love and fear, and the will to survive

It's all that brings you here

And keeps your soul alive

Hear a voice again

Hear a voice, it's screamin' - Ahh, Ahh...
