(Welcome to the ball)
(Lyrics: G.Thorpe, C.Albert // Music: G.Thorpe,
M.Mcgee)
I should have seen it in your eyes,
The feelings trapped inside
You kept it hidden oh so well,
All the pain you must have felt.
I tried to tell you on the phone yesterday
I wanna be there for you now
I'll be there
When love comes down,
Alone no more
We're just strangers in the night
That drift away.
Reach out, come on, babe
Won't you reach out, take my hand?
We'll never drift away again
Just like I tell you on the phone everyday,
I wanna be there for you now.
I'll be there
When love comes down,
Alone no more
When love comes down
Don't ya' know that you're a part of me.
And this you can't deny
'Cause when we kiss, we just can't hide
Just look in my eyes.
Take me away.
When love comes down,
Don't run away, don't run away, don't run
We can go to the other side
When love comes down.
Got to have your lovin', oh
When love comes down.
I'll be there, you know I will,
When love comes down.
Got to have love, got to have love,
Got to have your love baby.
