[Verse 1]

I remember what you said to me, when you said it to me last night

we was talkin', and you reassured me everythings fine

When I woke up this morning to get some loving from you

I turned to one side, to my suprise, I wasn't layin' next to you(mmmm)

Why don't you get closed to me, I thought it was supposed to be

Me and you, you and me, so complete(so complete)

While you handlin' me this way, what was it?

you was talkin yesterday, yesterday, I could say,

I seemed to be so complete, so complete

[Chorus]

Went away, you said nothing you didn't, no kiss, no lovin'

you didn't, it's a shame, but it brings about the weak in me, brings about the weak in me you didn't, spend a lifetime with me you didn't, share things I wan'na see you didn't, when ever your around me it's so complete

[Verse 2]

So I waited, and I wanted, 'cause I knew you would come

Hours 1, hour 2, hour, 3 hours, not at all

If I'm dreaming, wake me up

'Cause I just about had enough, I had enough

I can not see, how would you ever let this happen to me

I still belive, that it was supposed to be

Me and you, you and me, so complete

So complete, so complete

If you saying that you need to leave, then be a man about it and step to me, step to me, tell me please and without me it's so complete, so complete

Repeat Chorus

[Verse 3]

Won't you tell me right now what you want from me(what you want from me)

'Cause it's been too long that you've held it in baby(held it in, oh)

Thought you where the one but, you just played me(you know you played me)

Now I feel that I'm so incomplete, yeah

Repeat Chorus (with different variations)

[Verse 4]

Please, give me the response I need

I want you to complete me, oh baby

Please, give me all the lovin' I need

Promise you will complete me, oh baby

Baby, what more can I say

'Cause I want you to tell me

What it is you wanna do

'Cause I want'a be with you

(be with you
