When we're soaked by the rain of sorrow
When we're battered by winds of change
When the world all around is shaking and we're deafened by crashing waves

We call out, to you, to you

You are stronger than the storm
You are reigning over all
Faithful God you're always in control
You're the anchor of peace for our souls

With one word you can calm the ocean
Turning chaos to glass like sea
Speak unshakeable hope to our hearts
Be our fortress of perfect peace

We will trust, in you, in you

You are stronger than the storm
You are reigning over all
Faithful God you're always in control
You're the anchor of peace for our souls

You'll turn the darkness into dawn
We'll feel the sunlight's healing warmth
Once more

You are stronger than the storm, Yes you are
You are reigning over all
Faithful God you're always in control

Cos you are stronger than the storm you are reiging over all
Faithful God you're always in control

You're the anchor of peace
You're the anchor of peace
You're the anchor of peace, for our souls (You will turn the darkness into dawn)
You're in control (you are stronger then the storm)
