I can't stand this anymore when you scratch where you lay there is nothing there and I don't give a fuck

You can't hurt me anymore chop off my arm
there's a hole in my heart
and I don't give a fuck

Everyone I love
everyone I trust what's going to happen to all of us?

Seems like I've done something wrong well, let that punishment come hide the sun
I don't give a fuck

Scratching my nuts right at God on second thought there is no-one there
and I don't give a fuck

Chop off my arm
there's a hole in my heart
I don't give a fuck

What is this world without pain?
Ain't a goddamn thing just a rock floating through the universe

The world is a shitty place and I can't wait to die

(just kidding world, you know i love you)
