I love you
I love you
I love you

This might be love
But I don't want to speak to soon
And worry you
I know it's love
And I can't get enough of you
What to do
This must be love
But every time you look away
There's no way to know

And heartaches start when love falls short I'm rarely near
And loves make time like walking blind right down the pier

I love you
I love you
I love you

This might be love
But I don't want to speak to soon
And worry you
I know it's love
And I can't get enough of you
Enough of you
This must be love
But every time you go away
There's no way to know

And she's alright
I'm out of mind
She's out of sight
And love makes time like walking blind
I'm walking blind

I love you
I love you

I love you

This might be love
But I don't want to speak to soon
And worry you
I know it's love
And I can't get enough of you
What to do
This must be love
But every time you go away
There's no way to know

I love you
I love you
I love you
