City of gray
A group of faceless people far far away
I've heard they take more than they give
Freezing rain
Is all that taps on their lonely window panes
Violns plays such a sad song for them

Oh the winter will come & bury everyone
It will turn green to gray
And though I'd like for you to stay
Protect them from feeling lonely
And oh summer girl
You're bright in a gray world
Like a summer sun
Do come & don't burn anyone
Protect them from feeling lonely

Goodnight moon
Says she must go from my window
I thought she would return soon

Oh the winter will come & bury everyone
It will turn green to gray
And though I'd like for you to stay
Protect them from feeling lonely
And oh summer girl
You're bright in a gray world
Like a summer sun
Do come & don't burn anyone
Protect them from feeling lonely

Old man winter he's coming
I'm so cold
Old man winter he's coming
I'm so cold

Summer girl
You're bright in a gray world
Like a summer sun
Do come don't burn anyone
Protect them from feeling lonely
