Here is my problem
I'm like a car with no headlights
I'm like the sounds you hear in the night
My voice is aching
Screams and shouts are all it sees
I hear reflections
'Cause I start to think that they chase me

And all of this will end
You're (?) of sadness
I am your best friend (?)

But everything will change
Everything will change
Everything will change
'Cause everything will

We have no purpose
We are like (?)
At least we can say where we are from (?)
We could stay up
Drink and talk this night away
The liquid that burns us
Is fire for words we wish we'd say

And all of this will end
You're (?) of sadness
I am your best friend (?)

But everything will change
Everything will change
Everything will change
'Cause everything will

I know everyone
We'll just carry on
But I will be alone
'Cause I will just go home

I know everyone
We'll just carry on

But I will be alone
'Cause I will just go home

I know everyone
We'll just carry on
But I will be alone
