Maps are not what I think they are,
they leave me lost at night just like ships in the dark.
Well, dear friend your eyes are sinking deeper,
But I can't help you out,
I cannot help you out.

Well come on, come on, come on.
Well come on and just listen.
Well come on, come on, come on.
Well come on and don't panic now.

I used to laugh like a child, but then I scream like a girl.
My illness is my best friend in your world.

Fifteen, I feel a burning pain.
The doctor starts to shake, my body's broken and I won't be the same.

Well come on, come on, come on.
Well come on and just listen.
Well come on, come on, come on.
Well come on and don't panic now.
