Lie through your teeth
It's not a problem if you make your exit look clean
We both know our love is dead
I'm not friends with night, it changes wolves into men
So that's why I'll run, that's why I'll run away

We'll all burn out
Until there's nothing left at all
Until there's nothing left at all

Strangers dance side by side
Just to feel something close to love
But I don't feel warm tonight
No I don't feel warm tonight

We'll all burn out
Until there's nothing left at all
Until there's nothing left at all
This is your last chance now to make it right
This is your last chance now

I'm slipping, I'm slipping away again
I'm slipping, I'm slipping away again
So reach out, so reach out for me again
I'm slipping, I'm slipping away again
I'm slipping, I'm slipping away again
I'm slipping, I'm slipping away again

We'll all burn out
Until there's nothing left at all
Until there's nothing left at all
