I have a need others usually fear
I don't know why but my sight is clear
All I'm looking for is worried minds and chaos rush
So grab my hand and hold on tight
We're going farther than the fastest light
When you reach the throne you'll never say you're alone

Lets go, race the open road
Hey ho, the speed is much too slow
Lets go, the angels laugh with you
Living in Hysteria

High speed and pumping heart
I'm so exited for the second part
And if you don't mind I'm turning into another gear
The only risk is to die bored
And live your life on a cold white floor
I will go for this and go that hundred miles again

Lets go, race the open road
Hey ho, the speed is much too slow
Lets go, the angels laugh with you
Living in Hysteria

Hey ho, the speed is much too slow
Lets go, the angels laugh with you
And I will go for hundred miles just to find that evil mind
Living in Hysteria
