Close your eyes

Until the sunlight dies

In your head a thousand stars

Through the darkness you can see a light

And if they steal your life

Your heart is still mine

I want to believe in you and I heard you

Your song, you sing, a truth, there's no other

I want to believe in you, dear

On Sunday...

There's a life I hide

Well I tried to disguise

And I can take you a million miles away

I want to believe in you and I heard you

Your song, you sing, a truth, there's no other

I want to believe in you, dear

On Sunday I made amends

For all my mistakes

May God speed be with you

Oooh...oooh...oooh...oooh and I...

I want to believe in you and I heard you
Your song, you sing a truth, there's no other
I want to believe in you and I heard you
Your song, you sing a truth, there's no other
I want to believe in you and I heard you
Your song, (soft) you sing, a truth, a lover
I want to believe in you and I heard you
Your song, you sing a truth, there's no other
I want to believe in you, dear
Sunday
Sunday
I want to make amends
For all my mistakes
May God speed be with you
