so now listen here

i wanna be oh so clear

i lost my soul, lost i'll stay between your hands and my beliefs and here i am, frail

frail and bedazzled from all the glare

tug at my sleeve

my little girl, supermaid she don't know that i have stole my smile from a cheshire cat

and all i wanted was to be a man

since i gave up

i feel free

i feel free

i feel free

the two of us, that's dangerous

it's all inside our heads givin' in for nothin' less leavin' me for him

try to understand

the ones i love
and their demands
it's so unfair
when they can't see
that i'm the boy
who really needs
their love,
i suppose
frail and bedazzled from all the
