innocence

innocence finds you there

innocence

innocence doesn't care

any way you choose

the sun, are the son

are true

hold me now

i won't let go

innocence

innocence lets you go

innocence

innocence holds you down

any way

any way that you want

and you will be there

with the sun

and you say you don't care

any way

in the love

in the love, we're unsung

it's any way

hold it in

innocence in your arms

innocence

innocence holds you there

innocence

innocence doesn't care

innocence

innocence lets you dream

innocence
