Jl=James Iha, NG=Nina Gordon (of Veruca Salt),
J+N=both)

Jl: You should know that I love you

We should love like lovers do

And I can't help but fall for you

Ah honey I'm just a fool

Now you know

NG: Darling, I'll never be true

You see, for so long I was blue

Jl: (I'm not the only one)

NG: And if I hurt, then you will, too

Ah honey I always lose

Now you know

J+N: Lover, when will you?

Jl: I'm so afraid that no one cares

J+N: Lover, can't find you

Jl: I swear to God don't leave me here

J+N: Now you know

J+N: Oh, you know that it can't be

But no one else here really means

Jl: (Anything to me)

J+N: If you hurt inside

If you confide in me again

NG: Since you ran away

Jl: Hold me now, tell me how

Love is ours

J+N: Lover, when will you?

I'm so afraid that no one cares

Lover, can't find you

And no one knows what brings us here

Lover

Jl: Hold me now

NG: Hold me now

Jl: Tell me how

J+N: Love is ours
