to the ages die of sleeping creatures high in sky
bloody simple features
everyone choosing sides
we are inside
we are inside now
we are inside
we are inside
saturnine
how'd i'd love to waste your time
saturnine
saturnine
goodbye all you widows
tearstain on the name
glass into the vein
while seeking some relief
saturnine
how i'd love to waste your time
saturnine
saturnine
saturnine

you are waiting on a sign camera take this picture owreckages and sight
we have all forgotten
we are losing time
we are inside
we are inside now
we are inside
we are inside
you always cry
'cause you'll never burn
