Born to please, every simple need

I stand alone in my thoughts indeed

Hate you

For ever making me

I'm in you, I'm your anything

And I- want you

And I- need you

And all you are is brand new

And I- need you

Come to me, let me hold you still

I'm so tired, just as tired as you

Take me for anyone but me

All that you feel is never true

And I- want you

And I- need you

And all you are is brand new

And I- need you

When you say that you are

Forever my star

Could never let you go, no, no

And never let you know

Let roar these fears
To the whore of my tears
Pure as a lie, I pour to your eyes
Suck you like the sap from a tree
Honey from the dew, from the bumblebees, yeah yeah
And I- want you
And I- need you
And all you are is brand new
And I- need you
When you say that you are
Forever my star
Could never let you go, no, no
Never let you know
And I- want you
And I- need you
And all you are is brand new
And I- need you
