Time, time is what we need? Well,
There's no way this is true
From what we can't keep hiding
I see it, feel it too
Nothing seems to make us shake
But we can spend a lifetime
And make the same mistakes so

Get it back, get it back, get it back now
Right now and leave it all far behind
Get it back, get it back, losing track now
Lights out, it's the only way we're gonna survive
The thrill is gone we need a change
Don't hide, don't sugarcoat the pain

Our words are not quite the same
And you don't whisper anymore
The normal days, no longer
No longer feed our souls
If while I change, you stayed the same
Well babe we had it coming but
We keep fighting through

Get it back, get it back, get it back now
Right now and leave it all far behind
Get it back, get it back, losing track now
Lights out, it's the only way we're gonna survive
The thrill is gone we need a change
Don't hide, don't sugarcoat the pain

Hop on a train while no one looks
Let's let it take us far into
The only one way to reveal
The only place that seems to keep your heart pumpin'
And it's running overflowed
If this whole thing wasn't real, you'd never know

Get it back, get it back, get it back now
Right now and leave it all far behind
Get it back, get it back, losing track now
Lights out, it's the only way we're gonna survive

The thrill is gone we need a change
We've come so far, it's such a shame
Let's take it back and cheat again
Don't hide, don't sugarcoat the pain
