Who needs freedom? I've got security and they know what's best for me. Who needs freedom? I've got property, I buy and sell pieces of me. I've got a closet full of shit and some locks on my door. I've got bars on the windows and alarms on my car so...
Who needs free speech? I've got no opinions, except what I've been told.
Who needs free press? Objectivity doesn't exist.
Because the newspapers gotta pay the bills too man.
There's just no sense in rocking the boat.
You've got to learn to love all the garbage they feed you.
But who cares what your fed when it's forced down your throat.
Who needs freedom? I've got security, locked in a prison I can't even
see. Who needs freedom? I've got property, I buy and sell pieces
of me.
Freedom! Who needs it?
Freedom! Who needs it?
