Angel
Music & Lyrics: Jason Lam

Falling High
Screaming through the night
Cold and weak
I'm trembling inside
you hold my hands
as I look in your eyes
Shadows fall
Raining winter skies.

And when the daylight comes,
you spread your wings.
And then I pray
my soul, you'll keep always.

Heart of stone
Dark as the evening sea
You called to me
In my misery
Like desert rain
Washing over me
You soothe my soul
Take my pain away

Chorus 2x
