"Hey Cisco"

Watch him ride into the sunset He'd have the little fat guy right along his side Echoing off the canyon, Hey Cisco from Pancho 'n' pretty soon the black sombrero would reply Hey Pancho what's happening mi amigo It's getting somewhere near the end, this winding trail
When we've raced around the corner for the final dusty time Mr Renaldo 'n' Carillo's going to jail
Can't open no more supermarkets Duncan's sombrero's hanging up there with his guns Some cigarro sucking slag under a chip Hollywood chandelier Says 'Cisco, Kid you know your day is done
Let me know how you are doin'

Mr Renaldo

if you need me I could be a friend for life

There don't seem any point

..we should throw 'way

all these years

Why don't we saddle up and ride out one more time

What they doing to my friend

What they doing to my man

Don't matter when

I'll stay to the end

Hey Cisco

Let's go out in style

We're going down together
