When you were a young girl

Did you want a rag doll

The only doll you've ever owned

Now I'll love you just the way you loved that rag doll

Only now my love has grown

It gets stronger as the river flows

Deeper baby, heaven knows

Higher, as it goes

Do I love you, my oh my

River Deep, Mountain High, yeah, yeah, yeah

Do I love you, would I cry

Oh I love you baby, how I love you baby

When you were a young girl

Did you have a puppy

That always followed you around

Well I'm gonna be as faithful as that puppy

No I'll never never let you down

Cos it gets stronger as the river flows

It gets deeper baby, heaven knows

It gets higher, so much higher, as it goes

Do I love you, my oh my

River Deep, Mountain High, yeah, yeah, yeah

Do I love you, would I cry

Oh I love you baby, how I love you baby

I love you baby like a flower loves a spring

I love you baby like a wrong man likes to sin

I love you baby like a schoolboy likes his pie

And oh I love you baby, River deep, Mountain high

Do I love you, my oh my

River Deep, Mountain High, yeah, yeah, yeah

Do I love you, would I cry

Oh I love you baby, how I love you baby

DEEP PURPLE Mk1:

Rod Evans - Vocals

Ritchie Blackmore - Lead Guitar

Jon Lord - Organ, Piano, String Arrangements

Nicky Simper - Bass Guitar, Backing Vocals

Ian Paice - Drums

Following the success of the first Deep Purple album in the US, the quickly recorded this album, based around a medieval pictorial book, about life, the universe, and everything, The Book Of Taliesyn. The record made the top 50; the single, "Kentucky Woman", made the top 20.

The instrumental, "Wring That Neck" became a showcase for guitar and organ solos, and stayed in the live set until 1971.
