Oh oh oh

[Verse 1]

No one there

To share what I have been going through

And I'm so scared

That I'm not brave enough to talk to you

Coz every time I close my eyes

I dream away to another place

Where you and I are making love come true

[Chorus]

I need you to turn around

Make sure you come back now

We have to make up now

No need to be apart no more, no more

Turn Around

Make sure you come back now

We have to make up now

No need to be apart no more

No more, no more

[Verse 2]

You're not here

This house is not the home it used to be

Coz since you left

The echoing is coming into sleep

Coz every time I close my eyes

I dream away to another place

Where you and I are making love come true

[Chorus]

I need you to turn around

Make sure you come back now

We have to make up now

No need to be apart no more, no more

Turn Around

Make sure you come back now

We have to make up now

No need to be apart no more

No more, no more

No more, no more ore

No more, no more ore

No more, no more ore

No more, no more

Here we are

Sometimes it feels too far

Being on another side

There's no need to fight no more, no more

[Chorus]

Turn around

Make sure you come back now

We have to make up now

No need to be apart no more, no more

Turn Around

Make sure you come back now

We have to make up now

No need to be apart no more

No more, no more (x3)
