Get down
(make it easy)
good God make it easier now (good God make it easier now)
Get down
(man and woman get down)
good God make it easier now
(good God make it easier now)
Get down
a dooga dooga dooga dooga duh doo

Man and woman be patrollin the earth puttin shit in the game citizens of the world, we runnin out precious time is a grain of sand ignored by the hand (work hard man everyday)

(for who?) for another man's plan man orders woman when he come how get your ass in the air (my woman wants it just as much as I do) woman wants it just as much as he does but makes as if she don't care man and woman in this thing where I'm from be havin things on their mind minimum wage and the internet page (she cry) protect themselves from crime the bluest collar on the brownest of skin white, yellow, red too they don't care who it is, they watchin you conspiracies so you might as well dance gettin down Zulu

man/woman yeah you might as well dance
gettin down Zulu

c'mon, c'mon

(chorus)

gettin down is somethin between
woman and man
one minute we're so far apart and then
together we stand

men and women what's goin on inside our minds oh no, sing it one more time c'mon

check it out
red man was the first on the continent this you gotta understand woman not behind him, she's right beside him there and they both toil land white man fightin for independence from an old empire woman makes a flag for a new nation and let's the flag waves high black woman is stripped of her kingdom and bought the breastfeeding new black man, mentally, he broke it too but the cream always rise to the top that's what men and women do man/woman always doin the dance one wops, one pops we'd be lucky if we both found a groove that we both can lock can man be stronger if a woman is there?

I would have to say yes can women make it without men being there? she would have to be blessed woman and man are the spiritual forces brought together to live good thing its many of us here in the world today find a good one to give let's go, c'mon

get down
good God make it easier now
get down
a dooga dooga dooga dooga duh doo
get down
