Wake up
Then go to school
Life life
And be so cool
friends, parties after school with friends
i'll share the love with you

Because everything is not so easy take a breath
and exhale it all
this is life
this is where it begins with you

you call me up tonight
you tell me everythings alright i say okay wanna meet me with rollerblades?
you laugh
and i laugh

Because everything you do is love I am head over heals
isnt that enough?
I love you!
I love you!
