I have come without, anything
And I am pride without, my dignitiy
Dont know why, Its falling
I dont know why im still trying
I was hoping, that you would know
How things went wrong and it was over long ago

Cause I wont leave this place
And i wont leave here unchanged
You could scream in my face
Just so i would know
Cause I wont leave this place
And i wont leave here unchanged
You could scream in my face
Just so i would know

Things could turn around, So easily
And my lifes in the ground, i think you better leave
We could, try to, make this easier on us
And we should, try to, make this easier on us

Cause I wont leave this place
And i wont leave here unchanged
You could scream in my face
Just so i would know
Cause I wont leave this place
And i wont leave here unchanged
You could scream in my face
Just so i would know

Cause I wont leave this place
And i wont leave here unchanged
You could scream in my face
Just so i would know
Cause I wont leave this place
And i wont leave here unchanged
You could scream in my face
Just so i would know
