Nasty all the lies from who, yeah from myself

Lasting complications, I'm out of breath

A true reflection of yourself, when only fools know you

Can't wait to see what hides from you and from myself

Today there's no one home

I sit here all alone

Ã¢Â€ÂœI wait for youÃ¢Â€Â

Sad and feeling prone

My heart has turned to stone

Ã¢Â€ÂœCan't wait for youÃ¢Â€Â

Oceans that I've crossed

The wars I've fought and lost

Ã¢Â€ÂœI'll wait for youÃ¢Â€Â

Time to pay but I'm afraid of the cost

Oh please, please!

[Chorus]

It's all wasted - Waiting by the phone

It's all wasted - Feeling so alone

It's all wasted - Hours past like dreams

It's all wasted - Quiet save my dreams

It's all wasted - Waiting by the phone

It's all wasted - Feeling cold as stone

It's all wasted - Now I have to choose

It's all wasted - Feeling there's so much to lose

Too many times I wonder just what is wrong

Have I created problems?

Have I been strong?

Who can I blame for all the misery I see forming?

Have I been staring at the bottom for too long?

Today there's no one home

I sit here all alone

Ã¢â€ŒI wait for youÃ¢â€Œ

Sad and feeling prone

My heart has turned to stone

Ã¢â€ŒCan't wait for youÃ¢â€Œ

Oceans that I've crossed

The wars I've fought and lost

Ã¢â€ŒI'll wait for youÃ¢â€Œ

Time to pay but I'm afraid of the cost

Oh please, please!

[Chorus]

It's all wasted - Waiting by the phone

It's all wasted - Feeling so alone

It's all wasted - Hours past like dreams

It's all wasted - Quiet save my dreams

It's all wasted - Waiting by the phone

It's all wasted - Feeling cold as stone

It's all wasted - Now I have to choose

It's all wasted - Feeling there's so much to lose

I'm locked out

I'm blocked with no one to hear me plead

And I've watched out

But I still found no one to call to softly

[Chorus]

It's all wasted - Waiting by the phone

It's all wasted - Feeling so alone

It's all wasted - Hours past like dreams

It's all wasted - Quiet save my dreams

It's all wasted - Feeling sad and prone

It's all wasted - Feeling cold as stone

It's all wasted - Now I have to choose

It's all wasted - Feeling there's so much to lose
