Late night, I'm headed for a walk
In the cool night alone
Don't want to feel this way no more
Will my steps lead me home ?
Too much, it's too hard to take
And I'm all out of room
Too much to see it all just break again forever
I'll try to take away these razors out of love
I'll try again to save me from a bleeding heart
And I'm all sold out, but it's time I get it right
And I'm all sold out, but I'll win again
I'm sold out love
Moonlight, shadows on the floor
And a night I am yours
I can't believe it all for sure
Can you please make me whole
True luck is something you can't fake
And it's all out on loan
Bad luck is something I can't shake away from never
I'll try to take away these razors out of love
I'll try again to save me from a bleeding heart

And I'm all sold out, but it's time I get it right

And I'm all sold out, but I'll win again

I'm sold out love

Sold out of love...

Sold out of love...

Sold out of love...

I'll try to take away these razors out of love

I'll try again to save me from a bleeding heart

And I'm all sold out, but it's time I get it right

And I'm all sold out, but I'll win again

I'm sold out love

Sold out of love, I'm sold out of...

Sold out of love, I'm sold out of...

Sold out of love...

I'm sold out of love...
