Everyone walks alone,
we don't care here we are,
we proclaim the start of...
With false fronts and shattered dreams,

We don't care.. all we are all we are, is watching
all we are is crazy

We are standing on a road,
on a road to nowhere
There's a place for all of this
They don't care
We don't care
You can't break us down

Everyone walks alone,
we don't care here we are
we proclaim the start of...
With false fronts and shattered dreams

We don't care 'cause all we are all we are, is watching
all we are is crazy

We are standing on a road,
on a road to nowhere
There's a place for all of this
They don't care
We don't care
You can't break us down
